Overview

Will Czech Republic build a car battery factory?

According to Industry and Trade Minister Jozef Sikela, negotiations with three investors to construct a car battery factory in the Czech Republic have reached an advanced stage, underlining the nation's growing interest in the electric vehicle (EV) industry.

What is the Czech government doing about lithium mining?

Beyond lithium mining, the Czech government is engaging in preliminary discussions with investors in areas related to lithium production. These efforts reflect the government's commitment to not only bolster its position in the EV market but also drive economic growth through strategic resource development.

Could a lithium battery factory be located in the Usti region?

The extracted lithium is poised to play a significant role in producing batteries for electric cars, aligning with the country's ambitions in the EV sector. While the potential investors in the car battery factory remain undisclosed, Sikela hinted that one of the projects could be located in the Usti Region.
