

Tuvalu What is the energy storage solution

Overview

The Pacific island nation of Tuvalu is on track to achieving its goal of 100% renewables by 2030, with the recent commissioning of a 500 kW rooftop solar project and 2 MWh battery energy storage system in its capital Funafuti. Does Tuvalu need solar energy?

In response, Tuvalu has prioritized renewable energy as a dual strategy for mitigating emissions and adapting to climate impacts. Solar energy, in particular, is well-suited to Tuvalu's tropical climate, which offers abundant sunlight throughout the year.

What challenges does Tuvalu face?

Tuvalu's geographic and economic context presents unique challenges for energy provision. The nation's dispersed islands, with Funafuti as the capital and most populated atoll, complicate energy distribution and infrastructure development.

How does Irena support Tuvalu?

Organizations like the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA) and the International Solar Alliance (ISA) further support Tuvalu by offering policy guidance, capacity-building programs, and access to a global network of renewable energy experts (IRENA, 2025; Testbook, 2024).

Why does Tuvalu need a diesel generator?

Historically, Tuvalu has relied heavily on diesel generators for electricity, a system that is both costly and environmentally unsustainable. The high cost of imported fuel places a significant burden on the national budget, diverting resources from other critical areas such as healthcare and education.
